Beautiful ceremonies
with a sprinkling of humour

Hi, my name is Gaynor and I'm an English-speaking Celebrant who is passionate about life, love and laughter.

How it begins....

After your initial enquiry we arrange a face-to-face or online chat. I love finding out about your wedding plans, and for you it's a chance to ask any niggly questions you have and for both of us to see if we get on together.

Then I'll send you a booking form with T&Cs, which you complete and return to me along with a non-refundable booking fee. You can then relax knowing your ceremony is taken care of. I keep in regular contact but you have unlimited contact, support and high fives.

"Gaynor was amazing on our big day!!! She made us so relaxed, her presence brought us so much joy too. She has such a wonderful way about her. Leading up to the wedding was no different with a Skype chat, as well as plenty of correspondence we felt we were definitely in safe hands. Thank you again for making our day even more wonderful." L&T

The process.....

Your deposit receipt also has the password to the private client area of my website. Here there's a wealth of information, suggestions and ideas of elements you might like to include in your ceremony, or it might spark your own ideas.

When I send your booking fee receipt I also send you a questionnaire each (or in the first week of the new year if you book a year ahead) I ask that you both answer all the questions as fully as you're comfortable with.

"Gaynor, here's my questionnaire. I was dreading doing it. But I sat down with a glass of wine and away I went. Although the questions were easy, some of the answers needed real thought. After two hours it was all done and I found I'd really enjoyed it. I'm now quite excited about the ceremony and can't wait to see R's face to the answer to the secret question! Cheers" L

Writing the script

After you email me your questionnaires, I weave all the elements together into a first draft. There's one question "what you love about your fiancé/fiancée/partner?" Please don't share the answer; you'll hear it for the first time during the ceremony and it will be beautiful.

Then we make as few or as many changes to the draft as necessary until it's absolutely perfect.

The ceremony was beautifully written with sentiments tailored in such a touching and personal way. It was a perfect blend of readings, traditional elements and personal anecdotes that articulated our thoughts and feelings exactly. J&S

On the day

It's your big day's so I make sure I arrive in good time. I say hi to both of you and double check that our plan hasn't changed.

I also say hello to everyone involved in the ceremony; providing calm and reassurance, if necessary.

Our wedding ceremony was more than perfect!! Gaynor went out of her way to make sure we were happy! On the day she checked up on us both to make sure we were ok and ready to go! We had so many compliments on what a beautiful service it was! D&C

The day continues...

I take copies of everything. I'm a belt and braces sort of person. Plan meticulously and then on the day go with the flow, is my way of working. I then conduct the ceremony we've created and planned.

If you want, as part of the ceremony, you can sign a certificate which has your vows on it. And at the end of the ceremony I leave you a keepsake copy of your ceremony.

"Hi Gaynor, I can't thank you enough for such a beautiful ceremony, you made our day so special and I won't hesitate to recommend you to others. Hugs DA.

P.S. We'll let you know when the babies start arriving!!"

"A big thank you to Gaynor for making our wedding day so, so special. We laughed, the guests laughed and we all enjoyed the ceremony so much. You are patient and thoughtful and made the ceremony how we wanted it to be. Thank you ever so much." T&L
